SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

As the opening night of our enormous play draws near, we experience mixed emotions of gladness and regret. Our years of rehearsing together are soon to be ended as we approach our Commencement and prepare ourselves for a still greater production in which we shall be enacting characters of various types.

When we "tried-out" for parts in this massive production as first grade students, we knew little of what lay ahead but now we know only this--that every day brought with it new experiences, joys, and enlightenments.

The insignificant little programs with which we struggled, the music concerts we presented and our unforgettable operetta, "Under the Greenwood Tree"--all of these are very dim memories but we think of them with the same tender thoughts that we will soon apply to our more important activities of the present. After passing those inevitable, fearful experiences of a Freshman, we became very enthusiastic about high school. However, this and the Sophomore year proved to be quite uneventful in comparison to the Junior year.

Our first activity was the incomparable play, "Peck's Bad Boy". Our next task was the editing of the Spoon-drift with the aim of making it superior to previous ones. A "Starlight Roof" was the theme we used for the Junior-Senior Banquet in May which we sponsored as a farewell to the Class of '46.

And thus we come to the final dramatic act--staged during our Senior year at Hicksville High School. From the very first we worked together harmoniously in the editing of the Hixonian. On New Year's Eve we were sponsors of a formal program dance which proved to be a splendid success. This year the general trend of senior activities was somewhat changed. Instead of the customary Carnival following our traditional Coronation Ceremonies, A Senior Variety Show was presented. At our Class Play, the myster-comedy-drama, "The Spider's Web", we held the audience spell-bound and terror-stricken, throughout. The most festive of all occasions was the Junior-Senior Banquet in May. The Class of '48 sponsored a magnificent supper, program and dance for us with a theme predominating. Now we are fully prepared for the climax of this eventful production--the Graduation Ceremonies and the Baccalaureate Services. The class valedictorian and salutatorian expressed the sentiments of the graduates of the Class of '47 in their addresses on May 21.

Before the curtain falls there is always the "denouement",--the ending--and ours was a happy ending. The entire class with its sponsors and chaperons journeyed on an excursion to Chicago. The planned tours, the stage plays,--every major and minor incident are all experiences which we shall never forget. It was all a very appropriate finale for so great a production. And now as a "curtain call", we, the leading characters of this play, wish to whole-heartedly thank each and every one of our sponsors and producers who have helped and guided us through the years with their untiring efforts. Whatever fame or success we may achieve in the future may we say "we owe it all to the teachers and H. H. S."

PROPHECY

Dear Diary,

This is definitely the most exhausting day I've ever spent. But before I retire I want to tell you of all my escapades because I've enjoyed them so very much. Apparently the president of the Class of '47 had premonitions of the fact that I would be about the only one left in Hicksville when the time came for our Class Reunion, so he unofficially appointed me to contact each and every one, which I've endeavored to do.

We graduated just ten years ago today and what a day! If one can be sad and glad at the same time--then those were the mixed emotions of the Class of '47. It was impossible to have our reunion today, however, so it will be a week from Sunday. Florence Cole, Lawyer William R. Miller's private secretary, wrote me and asked if it could be postponed because our "Dewey" is busy defending Mr. H. R. Hinton and his loyal followers who are advocating that the younger generation isn't "going to the dogs."

I went up to Mayor Don Culler's office to see if he knew whether or not Representative Carl Gecowets would be home. Don gave me an affirmative answer and said that Congress would be adjourned at that time. Both of them claim they owe their success to their experiences at Boys' State. He also said that he had received word from his friend, Waldo Keller, that since his band is featured at Cleveland this month, he will be here.

I drove around by McCalla's Research Laboratories and was quite surprised to find Elaine Cottrell and Martha Keller working as lab supervisors. Bill is publishing a new monthly, "McCalla's Science Digest."

Hearing that Danny Jenkins was in the hospital with a broken neck and six cracked ribs, I drove to Rosedale to see him. Barbara Koch is superintendent of the new hospital and she has Cleo McFeeters and Mary Ellen McQuiston working there. Ila Mae Moon is dietician and Donal Wonderly is chief cook. After talking to Barb for sometime, she took me to see Danny. There he was--surrounded by the entire personnel of our most elite Barber Shoppe. Karl Balser and Micheal Hicov were giving him a haircut and their manicurists Jeanne Fogle and Teresa Schliesser were fixing his nails. It wasn't until after they had finished that I found the reason for Danny's condition. He had visited Panasuk's Muscle Building Center where Walter Beverly is employed and--well--you know "Heavy Bev." Barb said Bob's establishment has kept the hospital pretty busy.

On my way back home, the car broke down and I had to call Maurice Tuttle's Used Car and Repair Shop. Who should drive the wrecker out after me but Carl Helsel. Maurice's Shop works in co-ordination with Charles Carey's Garage so they took my automobile there where expert mechanics, Claron Bauer and Jack Bailey, could work on it.

Since I had a little time to wait, I decided to go to a movie. I went to Thiel's Theatre, quite competently managed by Paul, where to my surprise he was featuring "Windy's Last Love?", starring Linda Durre, accomplished vocalist, and Bonnie B. "on the key." They're still styled by Vivian Arend and their make-up was by Dorothy West.

When I came out of the Theatre, whom should I meet but Jeanne Lehman. She has been writing a book entitled "A Thousand Practical Ways to Use Chicken Feathers." Together we went to "Joe's Joint", where the owner, JoAnn Mettert, gave us appointments for the "woiks" before the class reunion.

I had just left Jeanne when along came Marlin Miller. He gave me several free tickets to see "Papa Davis' Midget basketball team play in the auditorium owned by Herbert Beerbower. Marlin is manager of the Midgets and he says they plan an extensive nation-wide tour soon.

I stopped by at the "Doodles' Daily" Office and asked Editor Max McDonald to give the reunion a write-up in his paper. Max said that I might be glad to know that Ned Beck is establishing his own business. Naturally, a bakery--Beck's Bakery--and of all places--in the Belgian Congo.

PROPHECY

My next stop was at Ruth's Roadside Restaurant, where the proprietress, Ruth Laub, was overjoyed to know that we would have our banquet dinner there. Ruth owns a chain of restaurants which Betty Brown, Arlene Scott, and Genevieve Singleton manage, Martha Evans is dietician for the entire chain and says she owes her abilities to Miss Howenstein. Ruth is going to give her managers the day off so that they may attend the banquet.

Since I had seen all I could contact personally, I went home to my prefabricated house, designed by master-architect, Roger Chaney, one of our Senior Class advisors. There I found my mail box filled to overflowing. The letter to first catch my eye was one post-marked "Timbucktoo". It was from Pat Davis! She is a famous missionary now and asked me to relay her regards to the Class of '47. Another letter was from Patricia Miller. Having divorced her fifth husband in Reno, she met and married a rich dude from Arizona. She is rolling in wealth and asked to finance the reunion. Another was a nice, newsy letter from Eleanor Hauter. She is secretary of the famed psychologist, Eudora Reitz. Eleanor said that since several of the "gang" are in New York at present, they all plan to come home together. Mary Ellen Bell is in New York on tour as a reward for winning a typing contest. She netted 130 words a minute. Lois Aten will come with them, also. She has been in New York City lecturing against dancing. The fourth letter was from Mary Lou Timbrook, who is teaching in a Bible Institute. She is heading a campaign for shoes for the natives of Richmond, Kentucky, Miss Moores' old home town. Mary Lou says that Reverend and Mrs. William L. Lower are going to pick her up on their way here from Reverend Lower's charge in Tennessee. Joyce is superintendent of the Children's Home in Nashville.

The letter I got from Mickey Zimmerman last week relieves me of trying to contact her. Mickey is teaching music in Germany with a group of World Peace Promoters under the direction of Mike Sapp who is trying to build up the populous of Germany through physical training.

Four other classmates will be unable to attend the reunion. Bill Powell, who was continually experimenting in school, has won the Nobel for his efforts. Bill has perfected an invention which blew the snow and ice off Antarctica. Now he is on that continent experimenting with the valuable resources there. George Rohrs, Bernard Rohrs and Basil Timbrook are also in Antarctica doing experimental farming. They credit Mr. Norman Merwine and F.F.A. for their abilities.

The up and coming class of '48 entered this new and different hall of study in the fall of 1942. Out of our total which was 68, we elected Ora Miller, Jr. as President, Floyd Kimple as vice-president, and Carol Jean Sackrider as secretary-treasurer. As supervisors, we had Mrs. Culler and Mr. Kunkle.

The next year we were back but with a loss of 9. We elected Betty Tomlinson as President, Patricia Wyckoff as vice-president, and Deloy Preston, Jr. as secretary-treasurer. Miss Sauers and Mr. Rodocker were our 8th grade supervisors.

Again in the fall of 1944 we met, this time as Freshmen and with the loss of 1 member. We had a frightened feeling, for as I mentioned before, we were now Freshmen and we all had to guard against that certain "menace" better known as initiation! Many of us even took such careful steps as to stay at home every night so as not to be caught by some so called "upper-classman." We chose Ora Miller, President; Naomi Lantz, vice-president; and Anna Neidhardt as secretary-treasurer with Mr. Snorf as supervisor.

At last we were Sophomores. This year we found that we had lost 2 members, thus making our total 56. Very proudly, we took the advantages offered us as Sophomores and chose green and white as our class colors, the white carnation as our class flower, and "Life is but a picture, so paint it well" as our class motto and with great pride and joy we ordered our class rings and pins. Dick Moore was elected President, Bill Cleland, vice-president, and Anna Neidhardt as secretary-treasurer while Mrs. Culler served as our class sponsor.

In 1946-47 we suddenly became aware of the astonishing fact that we were finally Juniors and proud of it! This year was a struggle to raise money for the expenses that were to be ours, however, it was well done. We, the Junior Class proudly boast of the fact that, financially speaking, our class play was the most successful play that has been given by any class for the past five years. Our class was very active in organizations such as F.F.A., G.A.A., band, chorus, Latin and commercial clubs, basketball, football and others. This year with our class number dwindled down to 47, we elected Pete Pearson, President; Anna Neidhardt, vice-president; Betty Tomlinson, secretary; and Albert Zuber as treasurer. With the aid of our supervisors, Miss Moores and Mr. Zimmerman, and our class rings and pins which made us feel more united, we have completed, in our own estimation, a very successful Junior year.

As a group the Junior Class looks forward with anticipation to next year but will dread the day when we must leave H. H. S.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

The class of "49" entered the new high school building feeling very much lost. Gradually we became more at ease and in the eighth grade we chose Gabriel Katona, Kenneth Horn and John Adams, President, vice-president and secretary-treasurer respectively. To the Student Council we elected Kenneth Horn, John Adams, and Bob Scott. We had two parties and felt quite grown-up.

At last we were high school freshmen. We really were making progress. This year we chose our own subjects. Our class officers were: President-Bob Mastin, vice-president-Bob Scott, secretary-Jayne Burgoyne, treasurer-Shannon Meeker. Our council members were Kenneth Horn, Evelyn Gordon and Jayne Burgoyne. We again had two parties, one of which was combined with the class of "48".

This year as Sophomores we chose "We're not at the top, but climbing" as our motto. For our flower we selected the yellow rose and our class colors are green and yellow. Early in February we chose our class rings and are now eagerly waiting for their arrival. On April the twenty-fifth we sponsored our first spring dance with everyone pitching in to help and incidentally enjoying themselves. Our class officers were, President-Carol Fox, vice-president-Evelyn Gordon, secretary-John Adams, treasurer-Gabriel Katona. Our council members are Evelyn Gordon, Kenneth Horn and Bob Scott for the first semester with Ruth Ann Whitman, John Adams, and Kenneth Horn for the second semester.

We "49"ers have had many good times together in the past years and are looking forward to the next two years with great anticipation.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

Our class of 1950 was ably lead through our first year in the new building by the class officers-President; Max Preston, vice-president; Janet Limpert, and secretary-treasurer; David Zimmerman. Miss Sauers, our class advisor, helped us plan and hold a party in the gymnasium. We chose Glen Miller, Nova Monroe, and David Zimmerman for student council members.

During the next year, with the help of Mr. Rodocker, our advisor, we elected as our leaders-President; David Zimmerman, vice-president; JoAnn Wilson, and secretary-treasurer; Estell Johnson. Our student council members were Kenneth Koch, David Zimmerman, and JoAnn Wilson. Again this year we had a class party where most of the evening was spent dancing.

This year, as all thirty-eight of us have finally reached high school, we were allowed to choose the subjects which would benefit us most. We elected for our class officers-President; Douglas Brown, vice-president; Patricia Saltzman, secretary-treasurer; Harold Miller. New student council members were not elected until the second semester, when we chose Max Preston, Glen Miller and Larry Schaufelberger as our representatives.

Though only Freshmen, we were allowed the privileges of sponsoring a March of Dimes Dance. It was held January 29 in the school gymnasium with all profits going to the Defiance County Infantile Paralysis Fund. Our dance was a big success.

We consider ourselves well-represented on the Reserve team by Kenneth Koch, Glen Miller, Lynn Blalock, David Zimmerman and Carl Beverly.

All twenty of the first-year Latin students are members of the Latin Club and have enjoyed taking part in the club meetings and programs.

We, as Freshmen, are looking forward to our next three years in H. H. S.

EIGHTH GRADE CLASS HISTORY

Our class of 1951, chose our class officers in the seventh grade soon after we became accustomed to the conveniences of the new building. The officers were, Max Culler, President; Connie Kennedy, vice-president; and Glen Wonderly, secretary-treasurer. Our only class party was in the gymnasium where we had entertainment such as games and dancing.

Our class officers this year were: Glen Wonderly, President; Max Culler, vice-president; Judith Blosser, secretary-treasurer. We had several parties this year under the able supervision of Miss Holtmeyer.

"INTERMISSION"

NEW YEAR'S EVE DANCE

On New Year's Eve of 1946 the H.H.S. Seniors sponsored a formal dance in the gym. During the course of the evening a program was presented to the dancers and refreshments were served. At twelve o'clock balloons were broken and the orchestra played "Auld Lang Syne." Everyone welcomed the peaceful new year happily.

COMMERCIAL CLUB DANCE

On Friday, March 14, the Commercial Club sponsored its annual spring formal. Dancing was held from 8 to 10 p.m. At ten o'clock there was an intermission, during which time a program was given. It included a skit entitled "Mama Goes To The Convention," two popular songs sung by Linda Durre, and two numbers by our Double Quartette. After the program refreshments were served and dancing was resumed. The girls looked very pretty in their fromals, the boys looked very handsome in their suits, and everyone looked tired, but happy, when the evening was over.

JUNIOR SENIOR BANQUET

The Junior Class met on March 31 to select waiters and waitresses and a theme for the Jr.-Sr. Banquet which was held on May 9, 1947. They carefully chose "Spring in a Dutch Garden" as the theme and elected 8 waiters and 8 waitresses, a hat check boy and girl, and a punch boy and girl. When the meeting adjourned, every Junior left the room proudly and feeling very important, for at last they had gained the privilege, but also great responsibility of planning a Jr.-Sr. Banquet. We hope we were able to make it one of the most enjoyable memories of every Senior of '47.

"GOOD GRACIOUS, GRANDMA"

As a moneyraising project, the Booster Club took up the production of a three-act play named, "Good Gracious, Grandma." After much hard work and faithful toil they presented it to the community. Miss Caroline Moores, the high school speech teacher, directed the play, assisted by Mrs. D. F. Keller, chairman of the Finance Committee. Between acts music was played by the Hart Girl Band under the direction of Kathleen Daugherty. The members of the band are: Freda Forder Harshberger, Grace Lash Daub, Ethel Fry Harkey, Lottie Forder, Mary Burgoyne Culler, Hazel Dorsey Baker, Mabel Core, Edith Hart Smith, Bess Forder Wickerham, Lucille Gingrich Wade, Ruth Widney Mohr, and Laverne Armstrong Blosser. The entire performance, both the play and music, was enjoyed by all who attended.

SENIOR PLAY

It is a weird night at a small mountain hotel in the heart of the Appalachians. A long muffled roar is heard in the distance--an ominous sound that sends cold chills down everyone's back. A party of tourists is stranded at the inn and they come under the evil influence of Dr. Martischang, and imposter and a spy. This fearful play, "The Spider's Web" given by the Senior Class, unravels itself into a terrifying mystery. It was presented on the 17th and 18th of April to a crowded auditorium.

JUNIOR PLAY

On Thursday and Friday, November 14 and 15, 1946 the Junior Class presented the play entitled "The Amazing Maudie Starr." It was a three-act comedy with the plot centering on the fact that Dick Starr, Maudie's brother, had invented a substitute for rubber. While trying to interest a rubber czar in his invention, he and Maudie encounter many difficulties and are involved in several mix-ups. Anna Neidhardt and Bill Cleland took the leading roles.

During the past year, the Spoonrift, our school paper, was published by the Junior Class. Under the very capable supervision of Mrs. Culler and Miss Moores, we were able to publish our paper every other week. The Junior Class members have all "worked over-time" in order to get the paper out on time.

The Spoonrift not only informs the public of what happens in school, but also serves as training in journalism for the class publishing the paper.

The advanced typing class ably served as typists for our school paper.

BAND

The Hicksville High School Band, in its twelfth year, consisted of 42 members under the very able direction of Mr. Carl Zimmerman.

The band practiced for some time on marching formations which they planned to present to the football fans during the course of the season but due to bad weather they were unable to perform.

The band gave three concerts this year on February 7, March 28, and May 2, these all being well attended by the public.

On March 22, the members of the band traveled to Defiance to participate in an all day music festival.

Some of the members took part in the solo contests on April 18 at Bowling Green; then on April 25 the entire band participated in a band contest at Bluffton.

There were quite a few members of the band who were seniors but as there is excellent younger material coming on, the band will continue to be one of the great organizations of our school.

VARSIITY BASKETBALL

Our varsity basketball squad is to be congratulated on its fine work during this school year. The boys have 18 wins to their credit and only 5 losses.

Although the varsity squad will lose 5 men this year--Danny Jenkins, Waldo Keller, Bob Panasuk, Claron Bauers, and Herbert Beerbower--we believe that the second team has possibilities of bouncing back with an excellent team for next year.

MAMA GOES TO THE CONVENTION

At the formal dance which was given in the spring by the Commercial Club, a play was given by several members of the Club. It was a great hit. Those who participated in the play enjoyed their work and were rewarded with the praise of their classmates and friends.

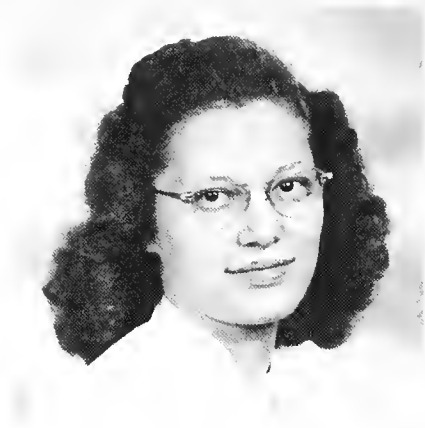

OUR DOUBLE QUARTETTE

The Double Quartette was organized in the latter part of December, 1946 with Bonnie Bainbridge as the accompanist. Its first engagement was singing at the New Year's Eve Formal dance. Everyone enjoyed their renditions of old barber shop numbers so much that they have had a full schedule from that time on. Unfortunately several of the fellows graduate in '47 and must be replaced or the Quartette will have to be disbanded. We don't want that to happen.

Vivian Arend

IN RECOGNITION

Amid the rush and turmoil of our activities, we, the members of the Senior Class of '47, wish to take this opportunity to express our sincerest sympathy to Vivian Arend, who was unable to finish school because of her physical condition.

During the time of her enrollment she acted as secretary for the Commercial Club; worked in the school's office; was a member of the Chorus; and a member of the 4-H organization.

Although it has been impossible to have Vivian with us during our last year, we extend to her our good wishes and continue to hope for her speedy recovery.
